KATKO RECEIVES WIDESPREAD SUPPORT IN SECOND QUARTER OF 2016

Syracuse, New York – Katko for Congress today reported raising $522,491 during the second quarter of 2016, showing overwhelming support for Congressman John Katko’s work on behalf of Central New York in Congress.

In the three-month period from April 1st through June 30th, Katko for Congress raised $522,491 with the help of over 719 individual donors. The Katko for Congress campaign currently has $1,454,902 cash on hand.

“With 75% of our contributions from individuals across New York State, I’m incredibly grateful and humbled by the outpouring of support for our re-election campaign,” said Congressman Katko. “In Congress, I’ve focused on being a strong and independent voice, fighting through gridlock to deliver results on the issues that matter most to our community. With the generous support that we’ve received, our campaign will be able to spread our message to voters across Central New York to ensure that we are victorious in November.”

Congressman John Katko was elected in November 2014 to represent 24th Congressional District of New York, which includes Onondaga, Cayuga, and Wayne Counties and the western portion of Oswego County.
