ONONDAGA COUNTY REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE ENDORSES JOHN KATKO FOR CONGRESS

Syracuse, New York – Following this morning’s Nominating Meeting of the Onondaga County Republican Committee, Katko for Congress announced that the Committee has endorsed Congressman John Katko (NY-24) in his campaign for reelection to the U.S. House of Representatives.

This morning’s endorsement recognizes Congressman Katko’s commitment to fighting through partisan gridlock to deliver results for NY-24.

“This morning our Committee announced our unwavering support of Congressman John Katko,” said Onondaga County Republican Committee Chairman Tom Dadey. “John Katko has proven to be an accountable, responsive, and effective leader for Onondaga County in Congress and the Committee looks forward to supporting him and working to ensure his continued success.”

“It is an honor and a privilege to serve the people of Central New York in Congress, and I am incredibly grateful to have once again received the support of Chairman Dadey and my friends and neighbors on the Onondaga County Republican Committee,” said Congressman John Katko. “As always, I will continue to work to deliver quality constituent service and to produce results on the issues that matter most to our community – focusing on jobs and the economy, combating the heroin and synthetic drug epidemic and strengthening our national security.”

Congressman John Katko was elected in November 2014 to represent 24th Congressional District of New York, which includes Onondaga, Cayuga, and Wayne Counties and the western portion of Oswego County.
