WITH ENDORSEMENT OF WAYNE COUNTY, KATKO RECEIVES UNANIMOUS SUPPORT FROM ALL FOUR NY-24 REPUBLICAN COMMITTEES

Lyons, New York – This evening, at the Nominating Meeting of the Wayne County Republican Committee, Congressman John Katko (NY-24) was unanimously endorsed in his campaign for reelection to the U.S. House of Representatives.

Congressman Katko has received broad support across the district, receiving the endorsement of the Wayne, Onondaga, Oswego, and Cayuga Republican Committees, as well as the New York State Independence Party.

“Congressman Katko’s support is solid in Wayne County,” said Wayne County Republican Chairman Bob Oaks. “In his first term representing Wayne County in Congress, Congressman Katko has developed a strong legislative record on the issues that matter most to our community. He has lead efforts to strengthen our national security, combat the heroin and synthetic drug epidemic, and negotiate a long-term highway bill to grow jobs and stimulate our local economy. John Katko is a resilient, effective, and locally-focused leader and our committee is proud to, once again, unanimously endorse his candidacy.”

“I am honored and thankful for the support and encouragement I have received from Chairman Oaks and from all of my friends in Wayne County,” said Congressman John Katko. “I’m committed to supporting our region’s vast community of farmers and growers, fighting against IJC Plan 2014, and growing our local economy, and I will continue to advocate for all of Wayne County in Washington.”

Congressman John Katko was elected in November 2014 to represent 24th Congressional District of New York, which includes Onondaga, Cayuga, and Wayne Counties and the western portion of Oswego County.
