KATKO, DEACON CAMPAIGNS AGREE TO PARTICIPATE IN FIVE DEBATES, JOINT APPEARANCES

SYRACUSE, NY – Today, the John Katko for Congress campaign and Colleen Deacon for Congress campaign announced a finalized debate and joint appearance schedule. The candidates will participate in five separate debates and joint appearances hosted by a variety of television, radio, and print outlets in the 24th Congressional District to ensure that Central New York voters the opportunity to hear from both candidates ahead of Election Day on November 8th.

“The joint appearance and debate schedule that both campaigns have agreed to will ensure that voters have multiple opportunities to access a substantive discussion of the issues. We appreciate the many venues and organizations that have offered to host debates,” said Patrick Mocete, Campaign Manager for John Katko, and Erin Fleck, Campaign Manager for Colleen Deacon for Congress, in a joint statement.

The schedule is as follows:

October 23, 2016:

The Campbell Conversations, Hosted by Grant Reeher/WRVO

October 25, 2016:

Time Warner Cable News Debate

October 31, 2016:

Joint Editorial Board Meeting with the Syracuse Post Standard/Syracuse.com

November 3, 2016:

CNY Central Debate

November 6, 2016:

NewsChannel 9 Debate

Congressman John Katko was elected in November 2014 to represent 24th Congressional District of New York, which includes Onondaga, Cayuga, and Wayne Counties and the western portion of Oswego County.
