“MEET COLLEEN”

SYRACUSE, NY – Katko for Congress today released its fourth television advertisement. The thirty-second spot, entitled “Meet Colleen,” features an unedited transcript of candidate Colleen Deacon’s declaration of party loyalty during an April 28th interview with Liz Benjamin, host of Capital Tonight on Time Warner Cable News.

The transcript can be found below:

Liz Benjamin: Colleen Deacon joins us from the Syracuse newsroom. Do you think that you could be independent and break with the leadership of the Democratic Conference in the House? I mean are you going to be able to say to Nancy Pelosi: ‘NO, I’m going to vote with the Republicans on this one.’*

Colleen Deacon: Well, I mean, I think, to be honest with you, I think a lot of what the Democratic Platform is what I stand for. So I don’t know necessarily why I would break away from . . . um, uh why I would want to break away from any of the issues, you know, anything specifically. Um, I think that’s what I would stand for.*

The television commercial begins airing immediately on area broadcast and cable. It can be accessed here. The ad will run simultaneously with “Understands.”

Congressman John Katko was elected in November 2014 to represent the 24th Congressional District of New York, which includes Onondaga, Cayuga, and Wayne Counties and the western portion of Oswego County.
