KATKO RECEIVES 'PROBLEM SOLVERS SEAL OF APPROVAL' FROM BIPARTISAN NO LABELS GROUP

SYRACUSE, NEW YORK – Congressman John Katko today received the No Labels 'Problem Solver Seal of Approval.' The Problem Solver Seal of Approval is issued by the bipartisan group, No Labels, and demonstrates Congressman Katko's willingness to working in a bipartisan manner to produce results for the 24th Congressional District.

No Labels is a national movement of Republicans and Democrats dedicated to working across the aisle to fight through partisan gridlock and develop sound policies.

Congressman Katko stated, "By working across party lines to find bipartisan consensus, we've achieved some great successes this Congress – including the delivery of a long-term highway bill, repeal of the Common Core mandate, and beginning efforts to address the devastating heroin epidemic. I'm honored to have earned the Problem Solver Seal of Approval from No Labels, and I'll continue to work in Washington to end the partisan divide and to deliver results for families in Central New York."

Congressman Katko joined the congressional group 'No Labels' upon taking office in January 2015. Since that time, Congressman Katko has been among the most productive and bipartisan Members of the U.S. House of Representative, with 14 bills passed the House and 6 signed into law.

In a letter sent by No Labels Chairs Gov. Jon Hunstman, Sen. Joe Lieberman, Congressman Tom Davis, and Thomas "Mack" McLarty, the bipartisan group noted Congressman Katko's commitment to working with both parties to find solutions.

Congressman John Katko was elected in November 2014 to represent the 24th Congressional District of New York, which includes Onondaga, Cayuga, and Wayne Counties and the western portion of Oswego County.
